

It began as an idea a short while ago and along the way, I gathered a few friends who felt like I, that children should have a safe, positive place where they can grow and develop self confidence, camaraderie and new friends away from the burdens of life. And as we made this journey and shared this idea throughout the land, we gathered a multitude of talented people along the way, who, because of their willingness to donate their time, their talent and unwavering support, have made it possible for us to provide an opportunity to children where they can explore and discover the possibilities of their own abilities, dreams and desires, SCOTT-FREE!

My friend, Mary Cochran, once said to me, "Scott-Free was born from the deeds of a good man", which I agree is true, and now, it has been realized by the actions and efforts of a community...

My sincerest thanks to Bev and James Kesterson for allowing Scott-Free to take over Bev's Fine Art for one special evening. Thanks to those of you who joined us on June 5th, it was a grand evening for all and a special thanks to those listed on this page, without whom, the SCOTT-FREE INAUGURAL EVENT would not have been possible!

sincerely,
deborrah jeffreys gruder

The Scott-Free Board Members

Natasha Minear	Ann Turner
Leigh Adams White	Shirley Worsley
Joni Porter	Ashir Gruder
Lori Ann Foister	Joshua Gruder

Wine

Westbend Vineyards
Shelton Vineyards

Publications

Ronny Stephens of Midtown, Cary
Living and Pinehurst Magazines

Desserts

Nina's
Giantano's of Wakefield
Lisa Hart

Raffle Gifts

Joe Mecca
Sak's Fifth Ave.
Wine Baskets from Shelton Vineyards
Dinner for 2 at Nina's
Andrea Crane

Flowers from Gardening, by design

Pam Hartigan

Scott-Free Soul Mix

Dan Brenner
Ralph Bard
Dan Crowson

Camps

Elliott Avent Baseball Camp
Sidney Lowe Men's Basketball
George Tarantini Soccer
Kay Yow Women's Basketball
UNCW Basketball Camp
Green Mountain Music Festival
Meredith College Science Camp

Artists

Clayton Proctor
Siglinda Scarpa
Geruad Staton
Math You Namie
AdAm Peele
Alexandre Sazonov

Catering Volunteers

Chef Bill Harrison of The Umstead Hotel
Servers / Enloe High School Volunteers
Equipment by XU Catering
BJ's Wholesale
Harris Teeter